The National French Honor Society

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Pi Delta Phi scholarships for summer study abroad recognize superior achievement in the study of the French language. The annual awards are designed to enable undergraduate regular members of an active chapter to continue their studies of the French language and of the literatures and cultures of the French-speaking world.

THE JOSEPH W. YEDLICKA AWARDS

- Full tuition summer-session scholarship to attend the American University of Paris, including shared housing, half-board, and a Pi Delta Phi Travel Grant of up to $1,000.
- Full tuition summer-session scholarship to attend the Institute for American Universities in Aix-en-Provence, including shared housing, half-board, and a Pi Delta Phi Travel Grant of up to $1,000.

THE MARY E. GUTERMUTH AWARD

- Full tuition summer-session scholarship to attend the University of Quebec at Chicoutimi, including shared housing, board, activities fee, and a Pi Delta Phi Travel Grant of up to $500.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Current regular member of an active Pi Delta Phi chapter who has not previously received a Pi Delta Phi national scholarship; honorary members are ineligible.
- Currently enrolled full-time in an undergraduate field of study.
- Applicant must be a U.S. Citizen or permanent resident.
- Preference is given to applicants who have not previously studied in a French-speaking country.
- Preference is based on financial need and lack of opportunity.
- Preference is also given to students who are not receiving other scholarships for study abroad.
- Award recipient must take courses conducted in French and for credit. Coursework taken must be applied to an undergraduate concentration, minor or major in French at the applicant's home undergraduate institution. Credits earned may not be transferred to a different or new institution. Recipients may not audit courses abroad.

DATES AND DEADLINES

- Nov. 1—application deadline including all of the application materials (postmarked no later than Nov. 1). The deadline is firm. Scanned, Digital or FAXED applications are not accepted; no exceptions.
- Feb. 16—scholarship winners will be informed.
- Sept. 1—scholarships winners are required to submit a report about their study abroad experience and thank you letter in writing to the Executive Director.

APPLICATION MATERIALS REQUIRED

1. The completed Pi Delta Phi Scholarship Application (available for download on the national website).
2. Letter by the applicant in English or French stating clearly and briefly his or her qualifications. Applicants must: address financial need and lack of opportunity, indicated any previous study abroad, address any other scholarships received for study abroad, and state that they are able to accept an award for summer study (five-to-seven weeks).
3. Three original letters of nomination (signed and on letterhead); the third recommendation (or second recommendation in the case where the Moderator is also recommending as a teacher) may be from a professor in another discipline. If the Moderator is also a professor of French recommending as a teacher, he/she should indicate that the letter serves both capacities. The Moderator must attest that the candidate is willing and able (physically and psychologically) to travel and to study abroad, and that the candidate meets all eligibility requirements.
4. Official transcript(s), to be included with the application materials in a separate envelope sealed by the university Registrar, or sent via a secure link that the Registrar has emailed to the Executive Director. NOTE: faxed, scanned or digital applications are NOT accepted.
