Pi Delta Phi

UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS
FOR SUMMER STUDY ABROAD

THE AWARDS

The Joseph W. Yedlicka and Mary E. Gutermuth Awards include summer session tuition, half board, and a Pi Delta Phi Travel Grant to help cover some of the transportation costs for one round-trip ticket from the U.S. to the host site only. The travel stipend does not cover any additional, pre- or post-summer session travel. For complete details of each award, visit: www.pideltaphi.org

THE JOSEPH W. YEDLICKA AWARD

The two awards, given in memory of Dr. Joseph W. Yedlicka, former President and Executive Director of Pi Delta Phi, are:

- Full tuition summer-session scholarship—including shared housing, half-board and some additional living expenses—awarded by The American University of Paris and Pi Delta Phi.
- Full tuition summer-session scholarship—including shared housing and board—to Aix-en-Provence awarded by the Institute for American Universities College and Pi Delta Phi.
- The above awards are accompanied by a Pi Delta Phi Travel Grant of up to $1,000 to help cover transportation costs for one round-trip ticket from the U.S. to the host site only; the travel stipend does not cover additional, or pre- or post-summer session travel.

THE MARY E. GUTERMUTH AWARD

The award, given in honor of Dr. Mary E. Gutermuth, former Executive Director of Pi Delta Phi, includes:

- Full tuition summer-session scholarship—including shared housing, board and activities fee—to the University of Québec at Chicoutimi awarded by Pi Delta Phi.
- The award is accompanied by a Pi Delta Phi Travel Grant of up to $500 to help cover transportation costs for one round-trip ticket from the U.S. to the host site only; the travel stipend does not cover additional, or pre- or post-summer session travel.

ELIGIBILITY

- Current Regular member of an active chapter who has not previously received a Pi Delta Phi scholarship; students who have not been inducted into the Society prior to the application deadline are ineligible. Honorary members are ineligible.
- Currently enrolled full-time in an undergraduate field of study.
- Applicant must be a U.S. Citizen or permanent resident.
- Preference is given to applicants who have not previously studied or lived abroad.
- Preference is also based on financial need and lack of opportunity.
- Award recipient must take courses conducted in French and for credit. Coursework taken must be applied to an undergraduate concentration, minor or major in French at the applicant's home undergraduate institution. Credits earned may not be transferred to a different or new institution. Recipients may not audit courses abroad.

APPLICATIONS MUST INCLUDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTS

1. An original and current (correct year) Application Form signed by the Chapter Moderator.
2. Letter by the applicant, in English or French, stating clearly and briefly his or her qualifications, and how an award might enhance academic or career goals or aspirations. Applicants must also:
 - address any financial need,
 - address and any lack of opportunity, and
 - must state that they are able to accept an award for summer study abroad (five-to-seven weeks).
3. Three original letters of nomination (signed and on university letterhead); the third or second recommendation (in the case where the Moderator is also recommending as a teacher) may be from a professor in another discipline. If the Moderator is also a professor of French recommending as a teacher, he/she should indicate that the letter serves both capacities.
4. Official transcript(s), included in a separate sealed envelope by the college or university Registrar, or sent via a secure link that the Registrar has emailed to the PDP Executive Director.

DATES AND DEADLINES

- Nov. 1—application deadline including all required materials (postmarked no later than Nov. 1). The deadline is firm; no exceptions. Furthermore, FAXED, scanned or digital applications are not accepted.
- Feb. 16—scholarship winners will be informed
- Sept. 1—scholarships winners' reports, thank you letter and minimum 5 photographs of their experience due to the Executive Director
